Will You Stand on Guard?

They are comments we've heard a hundred times:

"Somebody needs to sound the alarm about all the immorality and violence that pervades our culture."

"Somebody must stand up for the protection of the unborn."

"Somebody needs to tell the lost and hurting that Jesus loves them."

"Somebody should pray and believe God to heal sickness, disease and bondage."

The list of ills society faces seem endless. But this is not a time to wring our hands in despair. This is a time when every Bible-believing, faith-filled believer must arise and Stand On Guard!

I'm not talking about waving protest signs or organizing mass demonstrations. We have a much higher calling. Jesus Christ lives and functions in and through us, His people. We are His hands, His feet, His voice, to the broken world in which we live. If people are to see and experience Him, it must happen through us!

Jesus quoted the words of Isaiah when He declared, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." (Luke 4:18-19). As His children, that same anointing and calling dwells in each of us!

For over a year I have been criss-crossing this nation with a two-fold purpose. I am allowing His anointing to flow through me to see lives transformed, bodies healed and captives set free. Secondly, I am endeavouring to awaken believers to the needs of this critical hour we live in, and rally them to action – to Stand On Guard.

When you receive this Newsletter, I will be ministering throughout the Canadian Arctic, rousing Inuit believers to action, to see their communities impacted with the power of the Gospel, as Christ's miracle-working power is demonstrated!

Spiritual awakening and reformation in Canada will not take place simply through the preaching and ministry of one person. God's promise for national revival hinges on corporate participation of believers. He said, "If My people who are called by my name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." (2 Chronicles 7:14). That's you. That's me. We are His people, called to intercede and stand on guard for our nation!

You are commissioned to make an impact in the lives of others. Christ's Spirit is upon you. You are anointed to spread the gospel, to heal the sick and set captives free. Your calling may not involve physical travel from place-to-place like me, but it is just as real, just as valid as my calling.

All of us are called to hold up the hands of those who do go, by our prayers, encouragement and support. That's partnership. As each person does their part, the work is accomplished, and each one gets to share the reward of seeing lives transformed and our nation awakened to its God-given destiny!

Edward Everett Hale, the distinguished poet and former Chaplain of the U.S. Senate, expressed this sentiment:
"I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. What I can do, that I ought to do. And what I ought to do, by the grace of God, I shall do."

Will you do your "something" for the kingdom? If you cannot "go", will you give? Will you pray? Will you Stand on Guard for Canada?

Your generosity and prayers are as vital as my calling to preach and minister to those in need. Whether you give a one-time gift to help us go from sea to sea, and to the ends of the earth, or commit to monthly partnership, you make it all possible. God bless you!

Yours in Christ,

Bill Prankard
